Preface

This Ancestry Document is made up of 'pages' from many sources which made it difficult to assemble in such a way to make all type styles clearly readable on all computer devices. As a 'hard copy' PDF file, all should be legible. Sorry for any inconvenience.

Dieses Ancestry-Dokument besteht aus "Seiten" aus vielen Quellen, die es schwierig machten, alle Schriftarten auf allen Computergeräten lesbar zu machen.

Als gedruckte PDF-Datei sollten alle lesbar sein.

My Jesus, have mercy on the Soul of

AUGUST A. LAUBIS

Dec. 8, 1978

Ⓢ GENTLEST Heart of Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for the poor captive souls in Purgatory, have mercy on the soul of Thy departed servant.

Be not severe in Thy judgment, but let some drops of Thy Precious Blood fall upon the devouring flames, and do Thou, O merciful Saviour, send Thy angels to conduct Thy departed servant to a place of refreshment, light and peace. Amen.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord! and let perpetual light shine upon them.

May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

In Memory of

Theresa Laubis
November 19, 1988

May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, Rest in Peace. Amen

Methodology

The approach used in developing this story of the Lutz and Kottler families Ancestry is to first use the available original works created by each family going back to the 1600's and then show them in computer format.

After that, we piece each of them together where they meet around 1900 and from that point on, we bring the combined forward from then to 2001.

The focal point of this story is of course my mother Theresa Laubis who kept the information, pictures and people together all her life.

They are in original German script writing and may be hard to read. The majority of what is there is redone in computerized format on the upcoming pages of this document.

If you are reading this on a computer you should be able to magnify any section you wish to see clearer.

These are 2 pages which were once one large page. The first is the right side and next the left side so if you print them, they connect by the lower arrow to left of Karl and Katherina's names

Same in German

Sie sind in deutscher Originalschrift geschrieben und möglicherweise schwer lesbar. Der Großteil dessen, was dort vorhanden ist, wird auf den nächsten Seiten dieses Dokuments in computerisiertem Format erneut erstellt. Wenn Sie dies auf einem Computer lesen, sollten Sie in der Lage sein, den Ausschnitt zu vergrößern, den Sie deutlicher sehen möchten.

Dies sind 2 Seiten, die einmal eine große Seite waren. Die erste ist die rechte Seite und dann die linke Seite. Wenn Sie sie drucken, verbinden sie sich mit dem unteren Pfeil links von Karl und Katherinas Namen.

Lutz Brothers & Sisters

Daughters & Sons of Maria Josefa & Karl Lutz

Johanne Lutz married Georg Kottler in 1891. She was the mother of Karl (died at age 21) and Otto, maker of wine barrels, who died at age 44. She is the grandmother of Rosel Angele, Maria Kuhn, Anna Gorcke and Karl Kottler of Muggensturm. She died at age 25 in 1895.

Rosina Lutz married Georg Kottler in 1896 after the death of her sister Johanne. She was mother of Franz (who died at age 20), Johanne Kottler Reiger and Theresia Kottler Laubis. She is the grandmother of Hubert Laubis, Elizabeth West and Johanne Van den Hatzel.

Maria Eva Lutz was never married and lived out her life in the old homestead shown on cover. At this point we have little information about Maria Eva. Stay tuned as we are looking into it and will let you know in a future chronicle issue.

Valentine (Bacchus) Lutz, was a maker of wine barrels and taught Otto Kottler his trade. There was a family fallout when Otto went into his own business in competition with Valentin. His wife was Anna Weiler and they had three children, Maria Lutz Seiler, Anna Lutz Spath and Hermann (young Bacchus) Lutz. Lutz wine barrels are still in use all over Germany today. Valentin is the Grandfather of Gerda Nuss of Muggensturm. He is shown here in 1951 at his 80th birthday. He died in 1955 at age 84.

Franz Josef (Grozpop) Lutz was a brewmaster with pioneer spirit who made his way to America in 1896 and in his lifetime achieved the American dream. He married Elizabeth Buettner of Wichsenstein Germany shortly after his arrival in Baltimore, MD. They had 10 children who are the Muggensturm Lutz's based in Maryland and New Jersey. He brought Aunt Rosel to America. Franz is grandfather to the current oldest generation of Lutz's. He is shown here in 1944 at age 66. He died in 1953, age 74.

Karl + Maria Josefa Lutz

Lutz - Kottler History

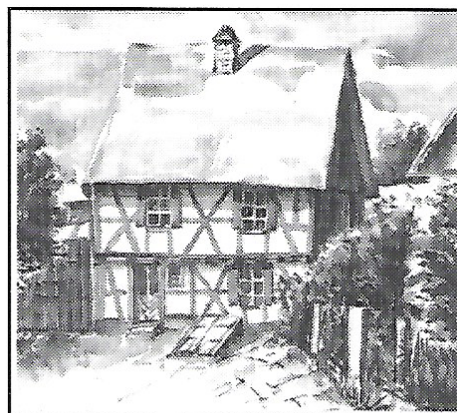

This is the story of the Lutz family which originated in Muggensturm, Germany. This research of the Lutz family focuses on one couple and their family of five children. This couple has been chosen as they are the parents of Franz Josef Lutz who had the courage to leave all his family and migrate to Baltimore Maryland in 1896. It is through Franz Josef Lutz that his niece, Theresia Kottler (Laubis), who he never knew in Germany, also came to Baltimore in 1925 and joined Franz Josef and Elizabeth (Buettner) Lutz's family of 10 children in their tiny home at 729 S. Conkling St. It was these courageous Lutz immigrants which would build the backbone of the Muggensturm Lutz clan in America today.

Maria Josefa Lutz

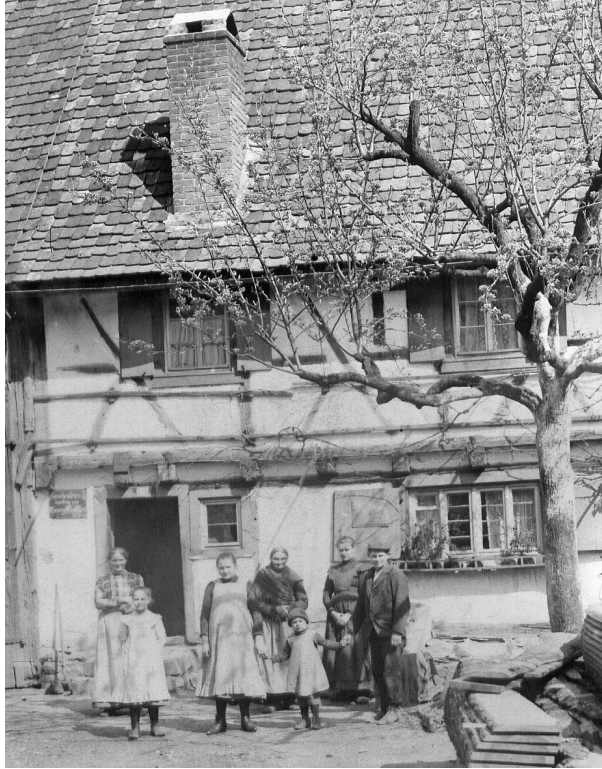

Back on November, 10 1868 in the village of Muggensturm in the state of Baden-Baden, Germany, Maria Josefa (maiden name also Lutz) married Karl Lutz. Maria Josefa lived a long life for that time (77) being born in December of 1840 and living till 1917. As a result, we are fortunate enough to have a picture of her and some of her writings. Her husband Karl, did not have the same good fortune and died at age 43 in 1885. They lived and had five children in a historic old house which still stands today. Three children were girls, Maria Eva who never married, Rosina and Johanna who wound up married to the same husband Georg Kottler as a result of Johanna's untimely death at age 25 in 1895. Rosine also died young in 1908 was the mother of Theresia Kottler, better know to most who survive today as "Aunt Rosel". The other two were boys. The oldest being Valentin born in 1871 and the younger being Franz Josef (Grozpop) born in 1878. Valentin was call

Bacchus (pronounced Bah-hoose) after the God of Wine. He was in the wine barrel making business and is reputed to have had a notorious short and hot temper. Folklore has it that in the mid 1890's, the two brothers fought a terrible physical fight which ended in Grozpop leaving for America in 1896. Aunt Rosel often related that the bothers only communicated again when she wished to come to America. The Bacchus (Valentin) wrote to Grozpop and asked that he sponsor Rosel to come to America. He did and paid her second class passage so she would not have to come through Ellis Island. Instead, she came straight into NY, got on the train for Baltimore and was greeted at Baltimore station by Franz and Elizabeth (Grozmom). Elizabeth was admired greatly by Aunt Rosel and became the namesake for her own daughter. After one year, Aunt Rosel moved to NY and began her own family. She kept in touch with all the German family till her death at age 88 in 1988. As a result, we are fortunate enough to have the contacts, family trees and many pictures and letters which give us knowledge about the Muggensturm Lutz family.
